

Cancer Research Administration and Management Certificate Program

Fills an unmet need for a comprehensive biomedical science research administration training program

Audience

Students interested in or currently pursuing a career in Research Administration.

MD Anderson employees with aspirations of working as a research administrator in a biomedical research institution.

**Bachelor 's degree required.*

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS
MD Anderson
Cancer Center®

UTHealth®
The University of Texas
Health Science Center at Houston

Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences

Benefits

Provides a strong foundation for supporting...

- Proposal development
- Budgeting and Planning
- Communication
- Project Management
- Fiscal Stewardship

Preparation for the national Certified Research Administrator® (CRA) licensing exam.

Requirements

12 graduate level credit hours:

- Pre-Award: 3 credit hours
- Post-Award: 3 credit hours
- Lab Practicum: 3 credit hours
- GSBS Science Elective: 3 credit hours

Contact: CRAM@mdanderson.org