Seminar:
Most (All) Roads Lead to Rome: Program Management Edition

Friday, Oct. 6, 2017
Noon - 1:30 pm
GSBS Large Classroom, BSRB S3.8371

Alejandra King, PhD

King is a Senior R&D Planning, Strategy and Operations Associate at Regeneron Pharmaceuticals supporting the newly launched Regeneron Genetics Center in New York. King graduated from the GSBS with a PhD in Microbiology and Molecular Genetics (2012). She also holds a Project Management Professional (PMP) Certification and a Postdoctoral Professional Masters in Bioscience Management (PPM) from the Keck Graduate Institute in California. She has a BS in Microbiology from Texas A&M University in College Station, TX.

During this session, King will describe the Project and Program Management roles in a pharmaceutical company, how she arrived at this role, and lessons learned along the way.

Lunch will be provided to those register by Tuesday "Oct. 3" at go.uth.edu/GSBS-cd-king1017

This event is co-sponsored by GSBS Office of Alumni Affairs.