

Proposed Amendments to Faculty Bylaws

Proposed Bylaw Change- Admissions Committee 2023

3.3 Admissions Committee

Current

The Admissions Committee shall consist of one faculty representative from each Program. This committee is responsible for soliciting recommendations from appropriate Programs concerning student admission, for evaluating applications for admission, and for the submission of recommendations concerning admissions to the Deans.

The Admissions Committee is responsible for assuring that only persons who have demonstrated a potential for scientific excellence and meet the academic credentials defined in the GSBS catalog be recommended for admission.

Proposed

The Admissions Committee shall consist of one faculty representative from each Program and up to 10 at-large faculty members appointed by the Dean, to ensure coverage of all program areas. This committee is responsible for soliciting recommendations from appropriate Program faculty and/or faculty subcommittees concerning student admission, for evaluating applications for admission, and for the submission of recommendations concerning admissions to the Dean.

The Admissions Committee is responsible for assuring that only persons who have demonstrated a potential for scientific excellence and meet the academic credentials defined in the GSBS catalog be recommended for admission.

Proposed Bylaw 4.0 Amendment – Clarifications to Bylaw on Amendments

SECTION 4.0 AMENDMENTS

Current

The Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the faculty members present at a faculty meeting. Voting may be at any scheduled meeting providing that a proposed amendment, endorsed by ten members, has been given to the Executive Committee sixty days prior to the scheduled meeting and circulated to the members three weeks prior to the meeting.

Proposed

The Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the faculty members present (online or in person) at a faculty meeting to which all members were invited. Voting may be at any scheduled meeting providing that a proposed amendment, endorsed by ten faculty members, has been given to the Executive Committee sixty days prior to the scheduled faculty meeting and circulated to all members of the faculty three weeks prior to the meeting.