Dear all,

Hope everyone enjoyed their summer, because the new academic year is finally upon us! I would like to take this opportunity to welcome all the incoming GSBS students. The neuroscience program held an orientation in August to welcome the new students.

The turnout for this event was amazing. Rodrigo and I were very impressed by the enthusiasm among the new students for the program. My sincere appreciation also goes out to the student council (Vicky Chuong, Dounya Jalloul, Bridgitte Palacios, Kenzie Peshoff, and Madison Shyer) and Amanda for all their help in organizing and planning this event. We are hopeful that many new students will join the program this year!

I am sure you all know that we are scheduled to have our Fall Symposium on September 27, 2024. Please register if you haven't already done so. Students will be given opportunities to present their research and we have a reception planned at Dogwood that evening. We are also going to start open the signup for WIP. When this call goes out, please sign up so we get an opportunity to hear about your research.

- Kartik Venkatachalam, PhD
