Did someone go above and beyond? Did you get an award? Fill out this form, and we will highlight your snaps, big or small!

Snaps to...

👍 Jing Cai, PhD (Advisor: Qingchun Tong, PhD) for successfully defending her thesis! Congratulations, Dr. Cai!
👍 Mitchell Slapik (Advisor: Valentin Dragoi, PhD) for winning an NIH F30 award! Let’s go Mitchell!
👍 Jing Cai, PhD, for publishing a first author paper in Cell Reports! Incredible work, Jing!
👍 First Years - Welcome to GSBS! We’re so excited to have you. Best of luck on your first semester! :)
Dear all,

What an amazing month it has been!!

A new batch of students interested in neuroscience have arrived, and the Fall semester is in full swing! The program organized an orientation for the incoming students that was very well-attended and generated tremendous interest. I have met with many new students who have impressed upon me their commitment to neuroscience. I am excited to report that many of them should be starting their first rotations in program labs soon!

The next big event on the horizon is our annual retreat, which will be held next week. I am excited to report that we have a large number of current and incoming students signed up to attend. It should be a banger! I look forward to seeing all of you at the retreat!

And as always, a massive SHOUTOUT to all the members of the student council for working so hard to plan and schedule the packed agenda, and to Amanda for keeping us out of trouble. We couldn’t do it without them!
